

A Film Screening and Discussion about
Perceptions of Girls and Women in Media Images

Killing Us Softly 4, a documentary by Jean Kilbourne

Join us to explore:

1. How the media reinforces unhealthy perceptions of beauty, perfection, and sexuality.
 2. How to address these issues in your home, school, Troop, and community group.
- * Troop Leaders will have the opportunity to explore how to use the Girl Scout Journey and Girl Guide books to address these issues in their troops.

Who: This program is open to all parents, educators, Troop Leaders, and adult community members.

Date: Wednesday, January 11th

Time: 7:30pm

Where: Baylis Elementary School Library
580 Woodbury Road
Plainview, NY

Registration: This program is FREE, but registrations are required and will be accepted on a first-come basis.

Register online at www.gsnc.org/criticalissues/events.

Questions? Contact Eliza Zipper or Sharon Haley:

Eliza Zipper
Advocacy and Critical Issues Coordinator
Girl Scouts of Nassau County
zippere@gsnc.org
516.741.2550 x254

Sharon Haley
Chair of Association Volunteers
Jericho/Syosset Association
Hotsox04@verizon.net
516.921.5059

Important: Because this film raises awareness about the ways women are depicted in the media, it does contain some violent and sexual images, and is for adult audiences only.