Sidewalk Chalk Obstacle Course

From 1776 to the present day, July 4th has been celebrated as the birth of American independence with festivities like fireworks, parades, and barbecues. Start preparing your celebratory obstacle course by drawing it on paper. Girl Scouts are always prepared. Be prepared to challenge family and friends with a creative course!

All you need is chalk and space on the sidewalk or driveway. Using all of the “must haves” listed below, create an obstacle course path for family and friends to follow. Inspire a summer of fun challenges!
